

ROA NAMED 2012 MASTERS CLUB RECIPIENT

Saluting resellers for their success, productivity, technology delivery and growth

Sunnyvale, CA January 10th, 2013 - ROA today announced that it has been recognized as a MaxxVault Masters Club Dealer for 2013. The Masters Club is awarded to only five MaxxVault resellers who demonstrated an outstanding year in both revenue growth and in developing new market opportunities for the MaxxVault portfolio of products.

“We look forward to continuing to work closely with ROA to continue our mutual growth and success in 2013 and beyond,” said Bruce Malyon, MaxxVault CEO. “Our partners are dedicated to providing their customers with reliable, valuable and customizable solutions and Masters Club members have proven they understand the specific needs of the market.”

As a result, ROA has become a strong MaxxVault partner, creating a winning combination for customers in need of integrated business technology solutions. This award is a testament to their hard work and dedication in 2012.

“First and foremost, we would like to thank MaxxVault for all of their tremendous support they have given us throughout recent years,” said Eric Mooney, ROA President. “When it comes to robust, yet simple to navigate, feature rich, secure, scalable, and affordable Document Management Software, MaxxVault is the perfect fit for our customers, regardless of size.”

###

About MaxxVault

MaxxVault LLC provides software solutions for the management, distribution and control of corporate documents. Benefits of MaxxVault Enterprise include: reduced costs, improve efficiency, increase customer satisfaction and regulatory compliance. MaxxVault is an open system; it is built using the latest technology which provides enhanced security, dependability and interoperability with existing systems. MaxxVault is quickly adopted by users and administrators. MaxxVault is a Red Herring 2012 Top 100 Global Award winner, a CRN 2011 Top 20 Cloud vendor and a BLI Five Star solution. Simple just got easier.

For more information about MaxxVault LLC, visit: www.MaxxVault.com

About ROA

Established in 1987, ROA started as a copier company in the Silicon Valley in 1987 and has evolved as the industry has evolved over the years. Now, ROA is a Ricoh partner providing end to end service and support to local and global customers in regards to MFPs, Document Management Software, Managed Print Services, and IT Services.

For more information about ROA, visit: www.ROA-USA.com